Course Materials

Open Books No Cost: There are no course material costs associated with these course sections. These course sections use only online, free, and open educational resources (OER).

Open Books Low Cost: The total cost of course materials for these sections will not exceed $50 at the College bookstore.

Open Books Plus: These course sections use an inclusive access model where the costs of digital learning materials are included as an additional course charge on a student's tuition statement. The San Jacinto College Board of Trustees has defined the parameters to ensure cost savings to students enrolled in these sections.
