

COLLEGE TERMS YOU NEED TO KNOW

AA

Associate of Arts (university transfer) is designed for students who plan to transfer to a four-year or upper-level college or university.

AAS

Associate of Applied Science (not traditionally intended for transfer) is awarded to students who complete the requirements as outlined in the technical programs section of the Catalog.

AAT

Associate of Arts in Teaching (university transfer) is a Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board-approved collegiate degree program consisting of lower-division courses intended for transfer to baccalaureate programs that lead to initial Texas teacher certification.

AS

Associate of Science (university transfer) is designed for students who plan to transfer to a four-year or upper-level college or university and major in mathematics, one of the sciences (biology, chemistry, geology, physics, biotechnology, or related field), engineering, or computer science.

Academic Advisement

Process of advising students about classes that must be taken to fulfill degree and/or transfer requirements.

Accreditation

Professional organizations have established rules for presenting and managing a strong defensible academic program at a college. Without institutional accreditation, the credit hours and the degrees granted by an institution may not be acceptable at other schools.

Advanced Placement

Earning of college credit prior to enrollment at the College by passing examinations (AP, CLEP tests) by the College Entrance Examination Board.

Audit

Regular credit course taken for no credit.

Blackboard

The learning management system used by San Jacinto College for instructional content delivered via the Internet.

Blue Book

Collection of blank pages bound together between a blue cover and used specifically for examinations. Blue books are sometimes required by a professor to provide a uniform format for the presentation of answers. They are sold in the bookstore.

Catalog

General information publication provided by the College that contains admissions requirements, outlines of degree programs, and course descriptions.

Certificates

Awarded to students who complete required courses with a minimum overall grade point average of 2.0 usually between 30 and 42 credit hours.

Commencement

Traditional ceremony in which students are recognized by the College as having completed all the necessary requirements for a degree.

Concurrent Enrollment

Occurs when a student is enrolled at two or more state-supported colleges or universities at the same time.

Continuing & Professional Development (CPD)

Non-credit classes, seminars, and conferences designed for adults and pre-college aged students who desire to improve their occupational, cultural, or social education. Schedules of course offerings are available in the Continuing & Professional Development division on each campus or online at the CPD webpage (<http://cpd.sanjac.edu/continuing-professional-development>).

Co-requisite

Required course that must be taken concurrently with, or prior to, another course.

Credit Hour

Academic credit given for a class, usually equal to the number of hours per week. There are a number of exceptions. A typical course is worth three credits; a lab is usually worth one credit.

Dean's List

List of students who have completed at least 12 term hours of courses in a semester, made no failing grades, and earned at least a 3.5 GPA.

Distance Learning Course

A mode of delivery for instruction with options to take as an online or online/classroom class.

Drop Date

Last day on which a class may be dropped to receive a W (withdrawal) on a student's transcript. If a student drops the course after this date, the student will receive an F for the course.

Educational Planning

Educational Planning is an advising session between the student and an educational planner/counselor about the student's academic goals and provides an opportunity for students to create an educational plan. See Academic Advisement.

Generated ID Number (G00)

Identification number assigned to the student by San Jacinto College that provides him or her access to various services and to the San Jacinto College computer systems. This number is used in lieu of a Social Security Number in order to protect a person's identity while enrolled at the College.

Good Standing

Student who maintains a 2.0 GPA and who has met all obligations to the College is considered in good standing.

Grade Point Average (GPA)

Grade Point Average is an indicator of a student's academic performance. Numerical values, or points, are assigned to each letter grade.

To compute GPA:

Divide total grade points earned by total number of term hours completed.

Honor Societies

Organizations honoring students who have achieved distinction in academic areas of service.

Hybrid Class

A course that is a combination of content delivered through Blackboard and face-to-face classroom instruction.

Major

Primary academic program a student chooses to pursue based on his or her personal and career goals for the future.

My San Jac GPS

My San Jac GPS (Graduation Plan Strategy) is a free, web-based application allowing students to track their academic progress toward degree completion, view how evaluated transfer credits and/or coursework meet program requirements, construct "What-If" scenarios when considering program changes, and view plans built with advisors that map out classes through completion of the student's credential. The system is designed to aid and facilitate academic advising, but it is not intended to replace face-to-face advising sessions. My San Jac GPS is available to all SJC credit students. To access the system, students should log into their SOS account and navigate to their My Student Records links.

Online Class

A course where all content is delivered online through Blackboard.

Prerequisite

Requirement that must be met before a course can be taken.

Probation

Academic warning that satisfactory progress has not been maintained, and unless immediate corrective action is taken, the student risks suspension.

Recreational Sports

Variety of competitive individual and team sports and recreational activities offered to students free of charge.

San Jacinto College District

Structure through which the College receives funding. The San Jacinto College District consists of the Central campus, South campus, North campus, Maritime campus, and extension centers. One Board of Trustees, made up of seven individuals elected to six-year terms, governs the District.

Scantron Form

Special form used for recording answers during an examination. Answers are recorded using a No. 2 pencil, allowing the examination to be computer-scored. Scantron forms are sold in the College bookstore.

Secure Online System (SOS)

Secure Online System allows you to register for classes, apply for and monitor your financial aid, check your grades, add and drop classes, access the Class Schedule and Catalog, and obtain unofficial transcripts and degree evaluations.

SJC Alert Me

The emergency notification system used to inform the College community of an emergency situation on a campus or throughout the College.

Student Account Suite

Student Account Suite allows you to check your balance, make a payment toward your balance, view your payment history, and store your payment method for automatic payments on the due dates. It allows you to provide permission to others to view your bill and make payments, enroll in a payment plan, and view your current payment plan.

Suspension

Academic suspension means that satisfactory progress has not been maintained and that a student is ineligible to register for classes for at least one long term (fall, spring, or the entire summer session).

TBA

"To be arranged (assigned, announced)."

Term

There are varying lengths of academic terms including but not limited to 16-week, 13-week and eight-week courses.

Transcript

Official record of a student's grades, credits, hours, etc., from any school or college. Official and unofficial transcripts can be obtained through the Secure Online System (SOS) or by going to the EPCC office. We now offer official transcripts online.

Warning

At the end of the first term in which the overall institution GPA is less than 2.0, a student will be placed on academic warning status.

Withdrawal

Removal from a class and/or college via completion of proper forms in the EPCC office or via the Secure Online System (SOS).
