

STUDENT INSURANCE

The College is not responsible for medical expenses incurred by students while on the campus or at College sponsored activities. College student health insurance is available for purchase through private companies. Students are urged to study the specific terms of the policy carefully before purchasing coverage.