

CHILDREN ON CAMPUS

---

San Jacinto College occasionally offers supervised classes and activities for children. However, at all other times, children may not remain unattended on campus, nor may children attend classes with their parents or family members.